

CCRP Membership Renewal Payment Options

CCRP Members are reminded that they must renew their CCRP Membership annually to ensure their CCRP membership is valid.

Please remember that you must be a fully paid-up member of CCRP for your CCRP group health insurance policies to remain valid, so ensure that you renew in January.

Your expiry date is located at the bottom of your CCRP membership card.

Annual renewal fee is $2,000. Renewal fee for 3 years is $5,000. Renewal fee for 5 years is $8,000

Payment Options for CCRP Membership Fees

1. Paymaster - all locations islandwide. Please make payment to -
Vendor name – Caribbean Community of Retired Persons
Type - CCRP Membership
Account number - [Your CCRP membership number]
Please also provide the cashier with your name, TRN and telephone number.

If you do not know your CCRP membership number please contact us by email at info@ccrponline.org or by phone at 876 469 1944 or 876 892 0836.

2. You can also renew your membership by bank deposit or transfer to our bank accounts -

Account name - CCRP

Account type - Business Chequing

Accounts :

NCB Cross Roads Acct # 231074732

or

CIBC/FCIB New Kingston Acct # 1002122601.

Please ensure you send us a copy of the payment receipt from the bank so we may update our records.

3. Our offices are currently closed to face-to-face interaction and foot traffic due to the pandemic.

When we reopen, you may come into one of our offices islandwide to renew your membership. Please see our website www.ccrponline.org for locations and opening times.

However, as membership fees are overdue for some members, we encourage them to use the other payment options to make payment as soon as possible.