

Some Care Homes in Jamaica

Below is a list of care homes including those which offer both residential and senior day-care services. The information contained in this document was provided by the Nursing Homes listed to CCRP. We at CCRP assume no responsibility or liability for any omissions or errors in the content, or for any negative incidents which may occur in these Homes.

We acknowledge that this is not a complete list and are sharing this for information only. It is up to you to make visits and enquiries to select which facility is the right option for you or your relatives. The homes listed here include some of those on the government's list of Registered Nursing Homes. We have written to the Ministry of Health and Wellness regarding their expired certification in the hope that this can be addressed in due course.
